From The Editor

SAY THANK YOU!

It's November—the month of thanksgiving!

It's a time when families and friends come together to thank God for His faithfulness to us, our loved ones and our friends. For a few hours on Nov. 26, we will lay aside all our concerns and worries, forget about the negative things going on around us, and focus on the good in life—including the many blessings God has given us.

Thinking about how much goes into celebrating this day causes me to wonder: Why is it that, for many of us, giving thanks is limited to one day out of the year? Why do we find it so hard to say a simple thank you more often?

Thank you. They are two of the simplest words in the English language. From the heart, they express our sincere appreciation for kindness shown. But because kindness is too often taken for granted, saying thank you seemingly has become one of the most difficult phrases to utter.

In Colossians 3:15, The Message, we are told to “cultivate thankfulness.” It says, “Let the peace of Christ keep you in tune with each other, in step with each other. None of this going off and doing your own thing. And cultivate thankfulness.” That verse doesn't say we should be thankful just one day out of the year. We're to do it every day—365 days a year! And what better way to show thanks than by saying thank you!

God expects us to work on having a thankful heart at all times, and in every situation—beginning with giving thanks for Him and the love He has for us. Thank Him for being in our lives, and for His faithfulness—for answering our prayers and being our Provider.

But then, we should make an effort to show thanks to those around us—to say thank you when someone does something for us, whether big or small. Like when the person who bags our groceries at the checkout line offers to take them to our car. Or, when the waitress returns several times and refills our beverage glass. Too often, we look at gestures such as these as obligations rather than acts of kindness. We think that because they're done as “part of the job,” saying thank you isn't necessary.

Saying thank you is not only necessary—it shows kindness and genuine appreciation.

Let's not wait for Thanksgiving Day to let others know how much we appreciate them. Do what 1 Thessalonians 5:18 says: “In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.”

Learn to say thank you!

THANKSGIVING: The Oldest American Celebration

Celebrating Thanksgiving as a time to focus on God and His blessings dates back almost four centuries in America. Although such celebrations occurred as early as 1607 at Cape Henry, Va., our current tradition of Thanksgiving came to us from the Pilgrims.

Sailing from England on Sept. 6, 1620, the Pilgrims spent two months braving the harsh elements of a storm-tossed sea. After finally landing and going ashore at Plymouth Rock, they held a prayer service then began hastily building shelters. But nothing prepared them for the bitter winter ahead. Before spring, half of them had died.

Yet through perseverance in prayer and the help of neighboring Indians, they reaped a bountiful harvest the following summer. In the fall of 1621, the grateful Pilgrims declared a three-day feast to thank God and celebrate with their Native American friends. America's first Thanksgiving festival began an annual tradition that slowly spread to other New England colonies.

A National Day of Thanksgiving

The first national Thanksgiving occurred in 1789. According to the Congressional Record for Sept. 25 of that year, immediately after approving the Bill of Rights: “Mr. Elias Boudinot said he could not think of letting the congressional session end without offering an opportunity to all the citizens of the United States of joining with one voice in returning to Almighty God their sincere thanks for the many blessings He had poured down upon them.”

He moved that the following resolution be delivered to President George Washington:

Resolved, That a joint committee of both Houses be directed to wait upon the President of the United States to request that he would recommend to the people of the United States a day of public thanksgiving and prayer.... Mr. Roger Sherman justified the practice of thanksgiving not only as a praiseworthy one in itself but also as warranted by a number of precedents in Holy Writ.... This example he thought worthy of a Christian imitation on the present occasion.

The president heartily concurred with the congressional request, declaring:

Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection and favor.... Now, therefore, I do appoint Thursday, the 26th day of November 1789...that we may all unite to render unto Him our sincere and humble thanks for His kind care and protection.

National thanksgiving proclamations occurred sporadically following this one, and most official Thanksgiving observances still occurred only

"I appoint...a day of public Thanksgiving to Almighty God...to ask Him that He would... pour out His Holy Spirit on all ministers of the Gospel; that He would...spread the light of Christian knowledge through the remotest corners of the earth...and that He would establish these United States upon the basis of religion and virtue."

—Governor Thomas Jefferson, 1779

at the state level. Much of the credit for the adoption of an annual national Thanksgiving may be attributed to Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, editor of Godey's Lady's Book. For 30 years she promoted the idea of a national Thanksgiving Day, contacting president after president with her recommendation. In 1863, Abraham Lincoln responded by setting aside the last Thursday of November, declaring:

We often forget the Source from which the blessings of fruitful years and healthful skies come.... No human wisdom hath devised nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the gracious gifts of the Most High God.... I therefore invite my fellow-citizens in every part of the United States...to observe the last Thursday of November as a day of thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens.

For the next 75 years, presidents followed Lincoln's precedent, annually declaring a national Thanksgiving Day.

Then, in 1941, Congress permanently established the fourth Thursday of each November as a national holiday.

As you celebrate Thanksgiving this year, remember the original spirit of the oldest of all American holidays—gratefulness to God. Amid all the hustle and bustle, take time to give thanks and praise "to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens." God. 🙏

Guarantee the Success of Your Prayers

Are all your needs met today?
If not, why not?

I could ask a thousand believers that question, and most of them would just shake their heads, bewildered. “I don’t know, Brother Copeland,” they’d say. “No matter what I do, this illness, these financial problems, these awful circumstances keep dragging on. I’m just waiting on God to do something about it.”

That’s tragic! Because while they’re waiting on God, He’s waiting on them!

James 4:2-3 says, “Yet ye have not, because ye ask not. Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss.” In other words, if your needs just keep on not being taken care of, it’s either because you’re not praying at all, or because you think you’re praying and you’re not!

That news may come as a shock to you. Especially if you’re among those who’ve used prayer as a kind of spiritual wishbone, going through the motions but not really expecting results. If that’s been your attitude, then change it! The time has come for you to get serious about prayer. You need to stop praying just because it’s proper. You need to stop praying just because you always pray at this point in the church service. You need to start praying to get results!

In Luke 18:1, the Bible says, “[Jesus] spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint.” A version that really speaks my language puts it this way, “Men ought to always pray and not cave in and give up.” I like that!

If there ever was a time we needed to pray, it is now. We are facing an extremely critical hour. The devil is literally killing people with disease, drugs, depression and every other weapon he can get his hands on. At the same time, he is stirring up strife and dissension, trying to disarm the Body of Christ that has the power and authority to stop him.

We’re being pressured from every side. But don’t cave in and give up. Pray! Pray accurately.

Pray expecting results, and you’ll come out on top!

Pray Accurately!

Did you notice what I just said? I said, “Pray accurately.”

You can’t just toss any old prayer God’s way and expect Him to answer it. You must pray according to the guidelines He’s given you in His WORD.

Now don’t get the wrong idea. You don’t have to sit around tongue-tied, terrified of saying the wrong thing to God. He loves you. He’s for you, not against you. He isn’t looking for you to be perfect before He’ll answer your prayers. But He does expect you to pray according to His instructions. Not because He wants to make it tough for you to get an answer, but because He wants to make it tough for satan to get in and mess things up.

Think of it as a security system designed to keep the devil out of the powerhouse of prayer. God has given you the secret code. So, don’t just stand around outside bellowing about your problems; use the code and go on in!

Am I saying that if you pray and pray accurately, you can expect to receive what you ask for every single time? Yes! Isn’t that a little presumptuous? No, but it is bold! And you have got a scriptural right to be bold.

According to The WORD of God, you have a standing invitation from your heavenly Father to “come boldly unto the throne of grace, that [you] may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need” (Hebrews 4:16). That word obtain is a word of certainty. The dictionary says it means “to get possession of.” Pray, expecting to get possession of what you need—not just once in a while, but every time!

In years past, you may have actually had that kind of confidence in prayer. But, if you’re like most people, you’ve suffered some disappointments. You have seen some of your prayers go unanswered. And instead of tackling the problem and wrestling with it in prayer and in The WORD until it was solved, you simply wandered away saying, “I guess you never know what God’s going to do.”

Well, let me tell you something. You DO know what God’s going to do when you go to Him in accurate, WORD-of-God, Spirit-inspired prayer. He’s going to answer you! He’s going to do exactly what you’ve asked Him to do. How can I be so sure? He’s given us three guarantees!

Guarantee No. 1: The Name of Jesus

In John 16:23, Jesus said, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.”

Look at that verse again. How did Jesus say we should address the Father? In Jesus’ Name. His Name is one of the guarantees we have that our prayers will be answered.

If you’ll look in Philippians 2:9-11, you’ll see why. There, the Apostle Paul tells us, “God also hath highly exalted [Jesus], and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.”

The Name of Jesus carries authority over all other names! It is one of the most powerful guarantees you have that your prayer will be answered. Use the influence that Name carries every time you pray. Then expect every circumstance in your life to bow its knee to the Name of Jesus!

Beware of religious slang that robs you of this guarantee. I’ve heard many a well-meaning believer end his prayer with the phrase, “for Jesus’ sake.” But Jesus didn’t say to pray “for His sake.” He said to pray in His Name.

I used to make that mistake myself. One night I was praying because I was suffering from a stomachache. “Oh, for Jesus’ sake,” I prayed, “heal my stomach.” After I’d said that a few times, The LORD spoke up on the inside of me. Wait a minute, He said. Whose stomach is hurting here— Mine or yours?

“Mine!” I answered.

And very plainly, He said, Then pray in My Name over your stomach.

Guarantee No. 2: The WORD of God

In John 15:7, Jesus gives us another guarantee. He says, “If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.”

So many believers wring their hands and worry about whether they’re praying according to God’s will. “Oh, dear me,” they say, “I certainly can’t expect God to do something for me that’s outside His will.” And they’re absolutely right. But they don’t need to waste time standing around looking puzzled! They need to grab their Bibles and find out what the will of God is! God’s WORD IS His will.

My friend, God has made us some very specific promises in His WORD. And it’s His will to fulfill every one of them in your life. In fact, those promises are divinely guaranteed by a contract that’s been signed in the blood of Jesus.

Think of it this way. Your Bible is the last will and testament of Jesus Christ. It is a record of your inheritance. Everything that belongs to you has been written down in that book. And the smartest thing you can do is to use it. You sure don’t want to leave it up on the mantle and just hit the floor crying, “Oh, God! Oh, God! I’m searching for the truth.”

The LORD would just say, “Well, it’s right there on your mantle!”

Get your Bible off the mantle, find out what it says about your particular problem, and then base your prayer on it. Don’t just base your prayer on what you remember The WORD of God says. Read it! Even if you’ve read that promise a hundred times, read it again.

Let me explain why that’s so important. In Matthew 4:4, Jesus says, “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.” The WORD of God is to your spirit what bread is to the body. Can you feed on the memory of a steak?

Try this. Close your eyes and see yourself slicing a lemon. Now stick that lemon slice between your teeth and when I say three, bite down on it so hard that the juice squirts into your mouth. One. Two. Three. Bite!

“YOUR BIBLE IS THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JESUS CHRIST.
IT IS A record OF YOUR INHERITANCE. EVERYTHING THAT BELONGS TO YOU HAS BEEN written down IN THAT BOOK.”

Chances are, you have such a vivid memory of what it's like to bite on a lemon that your mouth is watering right now. But let me ask you this. Have you received any nourishment from that memory? No! Remembering The WORD of God isn't enough. Feed on what it says again and again. Get it out and read it. Go to church and hear it preached.

One day, you'll read a familiar verse—a verse you've read thousands of times before—and suddenly God will give you the greatest revelation you've ever had in your life. A completely fresh revelation from that old familiar verse! And it's likely to be exactly what you needed to know to pray effectively about your current situation.

Yes, prayer can be prayed on the spur of the moment. Yes, it can be prayed from memory. Yes, it can be prayed from The WORD that is on deposit in your spirit as you're walking down the street. But I dare say this: You won't get results from the prayer you pray while you're walking down the street if you haven't spent some time on your knees in front of The WORD of God, allowing the Spirit to develop your prayer life. If you haven't taken the time to put any WORD in, none will come out!

If I pray over something any length of time and sense in the spirit that I'm not getting any results, I go to The WORD of God and see how I need to change. That sounds logical, doesn't it? But there are a lot of folks who don't do that.

Instead of going to The WORD and seeing how they need to change, they try to change God. You've probably heard some of them pray. They'll go on and on trying to convince God just how badly they hurt or how poor they are. They'll beg and plead and wheedle, all the while acting as though they had to somehow change God's mind about the situation. Unfortunately, those folks are in for a long wait.

God is never going to change. Hebrews 13:8 says, “[He's] the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.” And if you’re having problems getting your prayers answered, it’s not because He’s holding out on you. It’s because you’ve somehow gotten out of line with His WORD.

Years ago, this ministry was over a million dollars behind. I prayed about it, but the situation failed to improve. In fact, it just kept getting worse.

I went to God in prayer and said, “LORD, I need a million dollars!”

Finally, I went to The WORD. I did my homework and prayed as accurately as I could. That’s when The LORD answered me. But He didn’t answer me by giving me a million dollars. Instead, He said, I told you in My WORD I’d meet all your needs, right?

I said, “Yes, that’s what You promised, and I need a million dollars.”

No you don’t, He answered. That shocked me. “I don’t?”

No, He said. You need to make some changes in the way you’re operating your ministry. You’re out of line with My WORD in an area of your finances and you have been for a number of years.

My mouth fell open when I heard that. I had no idea. But I got into The WORD, found out what He was talking about, and made the changes I needed to make. That’s when the money I’d been asking for started to come in.

The same thing will happen in your life when you get serious about prayer, get yourself in line with The WORD, and start expecting results. God will begin dealing with the root problems in your life. He doesn’t just waste His time fiddling with the leaves like we do, He goes right to the root of the problem.

First John 5:14-15 says, “This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.” If you pray in line with The WORD, you can be sure you’re praying according to God’s will. And you’re guaranteed—the answer is on the way.

Guarantee No. 3: The Holy Spirit

The effectiveness of your prayer life depends on the degree of confidence you place in the Holy Spirit. He is God’s power arm. He’s the One who’s going to guarantee that the work gets done. If you want to see how the Holy Spirit operates, just look in Genesis 1. Read verses 1-3: “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.”

The Holy Spirit was present, moving on the face of the waters before Creation. But the simple fact of His presence didn’t accomplish anything. It was when God spoke and said, “Let there be light!” that the Holy Spirit exploded into action. He brought forth the light with such vigor that it’s still radiating through the universe, devouring the darkness at a rate of 186,000 miles per second!

The next time you start to pray about a seemingly impossible problem—think about that.

If you’re born again, the Holy Ghost is present inside you just as He was present on the day of Creation. And He responds to God’s WORD today just as powerfully as He did then.

The more Faith you have in Him, the more confidence you place in Him, the more awesome the results will be. Just think about that! The power that created the universe, the power that raised Christ Jesus from the dead, is activated in your life when you speak The WORD of God in prayer. Hallelujah, what a guarantee!

I urge you from this day forward to make prayer the bedrock of your life. Build your marriage, your career and your ministry on it. If you don’t, you’ll be ensuring your own failure. If you do, God will guarantee your success! 🕊

THE LIVING SHEPHERD

GENTLENESS OF HEART PART 2

Superkids, I always like to start our November transmission with a reminder to be thankful! Being thankful can be a natural response when you are following and trusting in Jesus. But THANKFULLY, even when we don't FEEL thankful, we can tap into the heart of Jesus on the inside and let thankfulness flow right through us.

Thankfulness is not listed in Galatians as a fruit of the spirit, but it functions like one. First Thessalonians 5:18 (New Living Translation), tells us, "Be thankful in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you who belong to Christ Jesus."

If it is His will that we be thankful, then He will help us! Let's be SUPER thankful for Jesus, our Good Shepherd, who made it possible for us to be His sheep! In case you missed it, last month we met the Shepherd-Warrior. He is gentle with you and powerful for you at the same time. And we lift their heads to listen. Only HIS sheep move toward him. Through all the noise and all the other voices, they know the one voice that belongs to them. And they follow it. Jesus described this very moment in John 10:27 (NLT): "My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

Even in the middle of fun with friends, games, social media, schedules, fears or doubts, you can hear YOUR Shepherd speaking to you, calling your name. You were made to hear His voice. It is easy to recognize, always trustworthy, gentle, protective and full of love.

A shepherd doesn't lead his sheep in silence. He speaks throughout the journey, leading the flock toward a new pasture or a safer location. Along the way, he leads them to water and rest.

In the same way, Jesus leads you every day, week, month, year and beyond, into the life He planned for you before you were ever born (Psalm 139; Ephesians 2:10). While He leads you along the path of life, He makes sure you have peace and rest in Him, and all the water you need.

When David wrote in Psalm 23, "He leads me beside still waters," he described what it's like when the Lord speaks to you and something deep inside you is restored, healed, refreshed in His presence. Jesus does this very thing in John 4.

Here we see a woman come to a well to get regular water, but guess who is there with a different kind of water? JESUS! He knew she had many concerns, hurts and troubles, but just one conversation with Him changed her whole life. Jesus told her that the water He gives becomes a gushing fountain that never runs dry. Jesus was the LIVING WATER she really needed! His words and presence filled her heart and soul! She may not have left with what she came for, but she sure became a gushing fountain of "Jesus Water," as she ran and told the whole village what He had done for her. THAT is living water in action!

As you read your Bible, or when you hear

Him speak to you on the inside, you are drinking that same LIVING WATER and being filled and INFUSED with the life of God Himself.

Look again at what Jesus actually promised in John 4:14,

The Passion Translation:

"...if anyone drinks the living water I give them, they will never be thirsty again. For when you drink the water I give you, it becomes a gushing fountain of the Holy Spirit, flooding you with endless life!"

One drink of Living Water starts something that never stops. When YOU receive the words and presence of Jesus, the Holy Spirit becomes a fountain inside you—not a trickle or a puddle, but a GUSHING fountain of endless life flowing into you from heaven itself.

That is what Jesus meant in John 7: 37-39, (NLT), when He stood up and shouted,

"Anyone who is thirsty may come to me! Anyone who believes in me may come and drink! For the Scriptures declare, 'Rivers of living water will flow from his heart.'" (When he said, "living water," he was speaking of the Spirit, who would be given to everyone believing in him. But the Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus had not yet entered into his glory.)"

Wow! The Living Infusion of Jesus becomes a FOUNTAIN of living water, the flowing river that never stops flooding our hearts and souls because of the Holy Spirit! What a great GIFT! Next month, we'll unwrap the gift that keeps on giving.

STAY TUNED! 🎧

"Only HIS sheep move toward him. Through all the noise and all the other voices, they know the one voice that belongs to them. And they follow it."

met David, who tended his father's sheep. He used strength, courage and gentleness; and fought off a lion and a bear to save the sheep. These two shepherd-warriors show the fruit of gentleness in action! If you missed the last transmission, you can scan the QR code below to catch up! Through December, let's see just how INFUSED with Jesus we can be and what that really means!

Now, let's jump into today's transmission and see Jesus from the sheep's eyes...and ears.

Picture a watering hole in Bible times. It is a busy place. Shepherds have gathered their flocks to drink and rest. Sheep are everywhere! You might think it would be complete confusion trying to sort them all out. How could any sheep ever find its shepherd in that crowd?

Then something remarkable happens. When a shepherd calls, only HIS sheep

TESTIMONIES OF REAL-LIFE VICTORY

Not So Crazy

I have been a Partner for over 30 years with KCM. I have been the benefactor of Kenneth and Gloria Copeland's obedience. I didn't really know what it meant to be a Partner at the time I signed up, and I thought I was crazy, but it was one of the best decisions I ever made. This became my avenue for so many miracles. For example, I had a baby after years of trying; she was 10 weeks premature and lived to declare the works of God. We were poor and in debt, now we are out of debt and doing so well that we can retire comfortably.

Many times over the years when my job was threatened, I always seemed to come out on top. Many relationship problems worked their way out through following the Word that I learned from BVOV. Gloria, it was your teaching on the fruit of the spirit in those early days that really got down inside of me and changed me.

As you look toward 60 years of teaching the Word of God, know that you have made such a difference in not only my life but my entire family's lives. So, with all my heart, I will end with these words: God loves you, I love you, and Jesus is Lord!

'Miracle-Working God'

My husband lost his job two years ago. Recently, a KCM Africa prayer team member prayed with me for employment for him.

Praise God, a few weeks later, my husband started a permanent job with full benefits!

God is a miracle-working God, and we give Him all the glory for His faithfulness and provision!

'Victory In Christ'

Thank you for the Partner Letters, the downloaded books and the powerful teachings received. These faith resources are indeed a great help to enhance my learning and cause growth, equip me for battle and enable me to do what God has called me to do. By acting on the things we have learned and received, surely we become an effective joint, fitly joined, nourished, and full of faith and love.

Nothing can stop our victory in Christ. As we continually stand on the Word of God, His truth and righteousness prevail in every circumstance, and we overcome the evil one. We have faith in the blood of Jesus.

Praise God, and JESUS IS LORD!

Blessed Redeemer

I grew up in the church, but walked away from God and put my Bible in the bottom of a cedar chest after my divorce. I suddenly became a single mother of two young children with only a part-time job, and I allowed the people of the church that I attended to make me believe that God did not care about me.

In 1988, by accident, I watched the BVOV broadcast, and it changed my life. I bought a new Bible and started watching the broadcast every day while reading and studying along with Brother Copeland.

I continue to watch BVOV every morning, and I am a Partner with KCM. Thank you, Brother Copeland, for your teaching. God used you to save my life.

Do You Know Jesus?

If you do not know Jesus as your Savior and Lord, simply pray the following prayer in faith, and Jesus will be your Lord!

Heavenly Father, I come to You in the Name of Jesus. Your Word says, "Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved," and "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved" (Acts 2:21; Romans 10:9). You said my salvation would be the result of Your Holy Spirit giving me new birth by coming to live in me (John 3:5-6, 15-16; Romans 8:9-11) and that if I would ask, You would fill me with Your Spirit and give me the ability to speak with other tongues (Luke 11:13; Acts 2:4).

I take You at Your Word. I confess that Jesus is Lord. And I believe in my heart that You raised Him from the dead. Thank You for coming into my heart, for giving me Your Holy Spirit as You have promised, and for being Lord over my life. Amen.

Prayer is Our Priority.

If you have just prayed this prayer, please let us know of your decision.

by Jerry Savelle

From the BVOV Archives:

This classic teaching originally appeared here in May 1998.

From 'Amen' to 'There It Is!'

Have you ever become so frustrated believing God for something that you began to wonder if “this faith stuff” really works?

You’ve said, “Amen, I believe I receive,” but months, even years, have passed and there’s no sign that what you’re believing for is ever going to manifest in the natural. The devil keeps telling you, “There’s not that much money in the world, and even if there was, you wouldn’t get it. There’s no use in believing for your healing. Three of your relatives died of the same disease you have.”

Weary and discouraged, you sigh and say, “Brother Jerry says this faith lifestyle works. But I don’t think he’s ever been under this much pressure.”

Oh, yes, I have! There have been times in my ministry when pressure and weariness waited for me to get up in the morning. Pressure and weariness stayed with me all day long. Then pressure and weariness kept me awake at night. It looked as though the things I was believing for would never be manifested.

Wait for It

But I learned long ago from the Word of God that to get from “Amen” to “There it is,” I have to resist the temptation to become weary and to give up under pressure. And one of the ways I can do that is to understand God’s principle of “due season” (Galatians 6:9).

To avoid frustration, anxiety and the temptation to quit, I have to understand that God has an appointed time, or a “due season,” for everything. Knowing that helps keep my faith strong while I’m waiting, because God promises that “due season” will come (Habakkuk 2:2-3).

When God gives you a vision or a goal to pursue, He doesn’t necessarily mean it will come to pass immediately. Whether it’s a vision for your ministry, your business, your family, or simply a vision of yourself healed and prosperous as the result of standing on God’s promises, you are required to wait for it.

For instance, you may be a pastor with a vision of building a new church, and you find the piece of property where you believe God wants you to build. You see a church building packed with people. You even see God healing and delivering people through your ministry in that facility.

It’s unlikely, however, that everything you need to build that church is in your possession at the time God gives you the vision. But you don’t have to get weary and frustrated while you’re waiting for your vision to come to pass—because God says your vision will “surely come,” and “at the end it shall speak.”

You Can’t See It Yet!

Let me tell you about a vision of mine that spoke.

Years ago, when Carolyn and I moved to Fort Worth, Texas, we were believing God for a good automobile because our old one was worn-out.

Now, in those days, I was just learning how to live by faith. I was still a spiritual babe. My faith was not developed to the degree that I could believe God would give me a brand-new automobile debt free. But I did believe He would give me a used one. And there was a particular used car Carolyn and I believed God wanted us to have.

At that time, we had a neighbor who thought I was mentally unbalanced. She could not understand anything about faith, but she kept questioning me about it.

One morning our old car broke down right in front of my driveway. I was standing in the street waiting for the wrecker to tow it to the repair shop when my neighbor came out.

"Well," she said, "I see you've got car trouble... again!"

I said, "Yes, ma'am, I do. But don't be moved by what you see. I believe I have a new one."

"Where is it?"

"You can't see it yet."

"Well, if you can't see it, it must not exist."

"It does exist. I just don't have possession of it in the natural yet. But I do have title deed to it in the spirit."

"What? A car in the spirit? How do you drive it?"

None of my confessions of faith made sense to her, but I couldn't let her unbelief destroy my faith. Every time the old car broke down, she'd ask me where my new car was, and I'd just keep saying, "You can't see it yet, but I believe I receive it."

Then, one day, it manifested.

After many months of standing on the Word of God, of putting up with the questions and the adversity, we received the car we'd been believing for. And I parked it in front of her driveway—so my vision could speak!

I knocked on her door and invited her out to see my vision.

She asked, "Whose car is that?"

I said, "That's the car I've been telling you about all these months."

"Where'd you get it?"

“To avoid frustration, anxiety and the temptation to quit, I have to understand that God has an appointed time, or a ‘due season,’ for everything.”

“God gave it to me.”

“Well, where'd He get it?”

“I don't know, but He got it, and it runs and gets me where I'm going, praise God.”

That car—my vision—was “speaking” to her. Maybe she couldn't hear it, but it was saying, “Look! I am the vision that was originally in Jerry's heart.”

The Law of Progression

Your vision is for an appointed time. And that appointed time is seldom “right now.” God says that to get from “Amen” to “There it is,” you must be willing to wait. It may take months or even years of standing before your vision manifests in the natural, but if you do not grow weary and give up under pressure, your due season will come.

Now I'm not saying that there is no such thing as an immediate manifestation. Many things I've believed for have come to pass the instant I prayed—but that's not the general rule. God's principle of due season is a process. It works by what I call the law of progression.

Jesus described this law in Mark 4:28: “The earth bringeth forth fruit...first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.” Between the time I plant a seed by releasing my faith in words and the time my vision manifests in the natural, there is a process of growth. Like the farmer's crop, my vision manifests itself progressively—first as a seedling (blade), then as a bud (ear) and finally, as ripe fruit (full corn in the ear).

God gave me a dramatic demonstration of this process early in my ministry when He instructed me to believe Him for an airplane. At the time, I didn't think I needed an airplane. I didn't even know how to fly. But the Lord said, Don't wait until you have a need for it, and you're under pressure. Believe for it now while there is no pressure.

So I started believing for an airplane for the ministry. It wasn't very long before I began to need it. I had so many invitations to preach I couldn't get to them all by car.

In the natural, it didn't look as though an airplane was ever going to come. But I kept waiting, rejoicing and thanking God for it. More than a year went by, and then one day, the blade came up. God sent a man to work as my office manager who was a pilot with 10,000 hours of flying time.

Hallelujah! I'd call that a blade! I knew God had sent me that man because he was attached to the airplane. He was the first manifestation that the seed was springing up.

The Apostle to the Laundromat

I had the blade (a pilot), but before I could reap a harvest, I had to have an ear of corn and then full corn in the ear. The ear showed up when I was preaching a meeting in an abandoned laundromat in West Texas. That's right—an abandoned laundromat! My pulpit was a broken-down washer, and the 12 people in the congregation were sitting on seats out of wrecked cars.

Suddenly, a big man dressed in dusty bib overalls and a straw hat with a red bandanna around his neck, walked in the back door. He marched up to me and said, "God sent me here."

He said, "I was on my tractor plowing my field and God told me, There's a preacher boy in the laundromat. Go down there and help him. He's believing for an airplane. I wouldn't be here unless God told me. I wouldn't give you a dime unless God told me." And he started pulling money out of the pockets of his overalls and laying it in my hands.

Now it wasn't enough to buy an airplane, but that was the first time I had received any money for it. This man emptied his pockets, dumped several hundred dollars on me, and said, "This is the last time you'll ever see me unless God sends me." Then he walked out, got in his pickup and drove off.

He left me standing there with my mouth open, knowing...I've got the blade, and I've got the ear!

There It Is!

Only a few months later, the full corn was ready for harvest. I had just arrived home from preaching in a faith convention. The man who was the blade met me at the airport and told me some people I knew wanted to have dinner with Carolyn and me.

When we were all seated around the table in the restaurant, our host said to me, "Brother Jerry, we asked you to meet with us tonight because God told us to give you an airplane."

Amen! Hallelujah! The full corn in the ear!

Once again, my vision was speaking.

No, it didn't happen overnight. I didn't say, "Amen, I believe I receive an airplane" one day, and go out the next day and say, "Hallelujah! There it is!" I had to wait for it and give the law of progression time to work. I had to resist the weariness, the frustration and the pressure to give up. And, most of all, I had to keep my heart fixed, trusting in God's promises.

I don't know what you're believing for today, but I do know this—the key to avoiding frustration, anxiety and the temptation to quit is to understand that God has an appointed time or a "due season" for everything. Your vision may be tarrying, but in the end it will speak. If you'll remember that, then you won't have any trouble getting from "Amen" to "There it is!" And you'll enjoy the trip! 🚗

2026 November Midterm Elections

Pray, Listen & Obey... VOTE!

As the Body of Christ, we have great authority in the kingdom of heaven and in the things of God. It may shock many to learn that even though politicians will have to answer to God for what they do, the Body of Christ will also be held responsible.

We are responsible for everything that happens in the earth politically.

The condition of the world is supposed to be controlled by our prayers. The Church has been given the power to change things. We stand in a Covenant. We have the armor of God and the power of attorney to use the Name of Jesus and the power of His blood.

God desires for His people to pray and take a stand with Him in Faith. First Timothy 2:1-2 says, "I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty." It is vitally important that we pray daily for our leaders.

It's also crucial that we ask God how to vote. Voting is our God-given right and responsibility. In this nation and others, people have suffered and died so we could have that right. We must not take it lightly.

Not voting is the same as casting a vote for the wrong side. Yet, there are Christians all over this country who are not even registered to vote—enough of them to swing every election.

The time has come to take our place. We are responsible.

When God speaks, we are to listen and obey, and we need leaders who will do the same. Party affiliation is not what matters. The person God can use is the one with a willing heart who will obey His voice. Ask God to give us leaders with willing hearts who will stand for what is right. Then vote as He leads you.

Your Holy Spirit-directed ballot is a powerful seed. When you vote in Faith, in obedience to God, your household will be protected. God will take care of you no matter who is in office or what is happening in the world. So, don't fear. Remember that God is your Source, not the people who get elected.

Whether you live in America or another country, don't miss your God-given opportunity to lift up your leaders in prayer and to vote when elections are held. Remember, you have authority and a responsibility to pray, listen and obey. You have a voice in the kingdom of God, so let it be heard! 🗳️

This Same Jesus

One of the most wonderful things about Jesus is that He never changes. I love that about Him! He's not kind one day and harsh the next. He's not ready to heal one minute and reluctant the next. He's always "Jesus Christ [the Anointed One] the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever" (Hebrews 13:8).

He is the same as He was in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. There, we see a Jesus who is easily entreated. We see Him healing and delivering people at every turn. The people who came to Him on the dusty roads of Galilee didn't have to struggle and convince Him to help them. They simply asked and He answered. It was easy for them to receive from Jesus.

Jesus never said no to the people who came to Him in faith. He always supplied their need.

Religious tradition has taught us that at some point during the past 2,000 years, Jesus changed—that instead of healing people, He started telling them no when they asked for healing. He supposedly decided their sickness was teaching them something. Religious tradition has said the days of Jesus' miracles have passed away.

But that's just not true.

As I was reading the book of Acts one day, the Lord strongly reminded me of that. In fact, He used the first chapter to impress it on my heart in a fresh way. In those verses, we see Jesus preparing to leave the earth to go sit at the Father's right hand. He is speaking to the disciples, saying:

Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven (verses 8-11).

Don't Reason It Away

Consider for a moment what the angel said. I know you've probably heard it many times before, but I want you to let it sink in as a revelation in your heart. He said, "This same Jesus" is going to come back. This same Jesus!

Let me ask you something. If Jesus was one way when He was on the earth, and He is going to be the same way when He comes back, what do you think He's going to be like during the time in between?

He's going to be the same!

This same Jesus! He's the same right now as He was when He walked the earth. He has the same heart of compassion. He's just as easily moved now as He was then. He's just as quick

HAS SAID THE DAYS OF JESUS’ MIRACLES
HAVE PASSED AWAY.
BUT THAT’S JUST NOT

to heal now as He ever was. He truly is the same yesterday, today and forever.

That's such a simple revelation. We ought to just receive it like little children and believe it. But most of us don't. We start reasoning it away in our minds. We think, Well, my disease is so serious and I've had it for such a long time, it just couldn't be that easy for me to be healed.

Thoughts like that are lies of the devil! Jesus healed a number of people who had been sick for a long time. It wasn't hard for Him. Nothing was hard for Him. We need to quit reasoning so much and just believe!

"But Gloria," you may say, "how can Jesus minister to me the way He did to those who walked with Him 2,000 years ago? He isn't here anymore. He's in heaven."

Yes, He is in heaven, but He is still ministering here on the earth through His Word, and through the Holy Spirit who is working through the Church. That's why He could say to the disciples just before His ascension, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world" (Matthew 28:20).

Read through the Gospels and then through Acts and you'll see that Jesus' ministry didn't change after He ascended to heaven. He just continued to do through the Church what He had done personally during His earthly ministry. Through His disciples He continued to heal, deliver and cast out devils by the power of the Holy Ghost.

Thank God that Holy Ghost power is still in our midst. Thank God the same Anointing that was on Jesus is on the Church. This same Jesus is still available to minister to us and through us today!

He Went About Doing Good

With that in mind, we can take a fresh look at what Jesus said and did during His time on earth. Let's start with Luke 4, where we see the foundational message Jesus preached everywhere He went:

The Spirit of the Lord [is] upon Me, because He has anointed Me [the Anointed One, the Messiah] to preach the good news (the Gospel) to the poor; He has sent Me to announce release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to send forth as delivered those who are oppressed [who are downtrodden, bruised, crushed, and broken down by calamity], to proclaim the accepted and acceptable year of the Lord [the day when salvation and the free favors of God profusely abound] (verses 18-19, Amplified Bible, Classic Edition).

Now remember, Jesus is still preaching that message today. So if you fall into any of the categories He listed there—if you're blind, oppressed by sickness, depressed, in bondage to drugs or alcohol, or simply beaten down by the calamity of this world—Jesus is here to deliver you.

Today is the day of your salvation!

This is the day when the free favors of God profusely abound. They haven't abated. If you want to see just how freely those divine favors flow, and how easy it is to obtain them, just read Matthew, Mark, Luke and John and watch Jesus in action. Acts 10:38 says of Him, "How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him."

Jesus just went about doing good. He would simply go from one place to another blessing people and healing them and delivering them. It wasn't hard to get Jesus to work miracles. It was easy!

Look at one day in Jesus' life, as recorded in Mark 1, and you can see that for yourself:

On the sabbath day [Jesus] entered into the synagogue, and taught.... And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out.... And Jesus rebuked [the unclean spirit], saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this?... for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him (verses 21, 23, 25-27).

Notice what Jesus did there. He came across a man who needed a burden removed and a devil cast out of him, so He simply did it. He

delivering people AT EVERY TURN. THE PEOPLE WHO CAME TO HIM ON THE DUSTY ROADS OF GALILEE DIDN'T HAVE TO STRUGGLE AND CONVINCE HIM TO HELP
THEM. THEY simply asked AND

didn't stop there, either. Scripture tells us He went on that day “into the house of Simon.... But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her. And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her” (verses 29-31).

Isn't that something? The very next place He went, Jesus ran into another need. What did Jesus do about it? He took care of it! He ministered healing. But His day wasn't over yet.

The next verses tell us that “at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils. And all the city was gathered together at the door. And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils” (verses 32-34).

I love to see Jesus with the eye of my heart, walking around, loving people and ministering to them. I love to see Him go about His day casting out devils, bringing healing and working miracles!

What's more, I love to think about the fact that Jesus still wants to spend His day that way. He's still the same Jesus!

What Do You Want Him To Do for You?

It's just as easy to receive from Jesus today as it ever was. Back in the days when He walked the earth, Jesus would just be going from one place to another, and people would rush up to Him with faith in their hearts and in their mouths—and He'd do whatever they asked Him to do.

It was as simple as that! He did whatever they asked for in faith.

You can see that in the life of blind Bartimaeus. The Bible says he was sitting by the highway begging one day, when Jesus came walking by: “And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me” (Mark 10:47-48).

Look what happened when Bartimaeus cried out: “And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called” (verse 49). That's always the way Jesus was. No matter what He was doing, when a person cried out in faith, Jesus would stop and minister to that person. He's still that way. At the call of faith today, all of heaven moves to answer that prayer.

When they brought Bartimaeus to Jesus, do you know what He said? He said, "What wilt thou that I should do unto thee?" (verse 51). In the AMPC it reads, "What do you want Me to do for you?" "The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way" (verses 51-52).

Isn't that easy? Jesus asked Bartimaeus what he wanted. Bartimaeus answered...and Jesus did it.

Glory to God! Jesus has that same attitude toward us today. Every morning when you get up, He's saying, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

Jesus Is an Easy Touch

Someone might say, "Now, wait a minute. The healing of Bartimaeus alone doesn't prove Jesus always responded like that. It's just one incident."

I know it, but if I had the time and space, I could give you many, many others. I could tell you about the leper in Matthew 8 who came to Jesus "and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean" (verse 2).

Do you know what Jesus' response was to him? "I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed" (verse 3).

I could tell you about the centurion who had a sick servant and came to Jesus, saying, "Lord... speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed" (verse 8).

Jesus didn't say to that man, "Now listen here—I'm the One who decides what needs to happen in these situations, and I need to go lay My hands on that servant." No, He simply did what the centurion asked Him to do. He said, "Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour" (verse 13).

I could tell you about Jairus who fell at Jesus' feet "and besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live" (Mark 5:23). Even though that little girl died before Jesus arrived,

He still did exactly what that man said. He took her by the hand, healed her and raised her from the dead!

I could tell you about the woman who had an issue of blood for 12 years and said to herself, "If I may touch but [Jesus'] clothes, I shall be whole" (verse 28). No doubt by now, even if you haven't read the story, you can guess what happened to that woman.

She was healed when she touched Jesus' clothes, just like she said she'd be! "And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague" (verse 34).

Do you see how easy Jesus was to deal with back then? He's just as easy to deal with now. He is easily touched with the feeling of our infirmities (Hebrews 4:15). Whatever they said is what Jesus said and did. And whatever you say with your mouth and believe with your heart, He'll do for you. How do I know? Because He's the same Jesus.

Whatever you need from Him today—whether it's healing in your body, deliverance from oppression, devils, drugs, pornography or anything else that has attached itself to your life—Jesus is saying, "What can I do for you? What is it that you want from Me?"

If you need money in your bank account, Jesus can handle it. He knows how to get you money. If you'll give Him faith, and you'll give Him words to work with, He'll get you whatever you need.

If you need your children to come into the kingdom of God, Jesus knows how to rescue them. He knows how to bring in your children. He's saying, "What can I do for you today?"

Whatever you want, ask for it. Believe you receive it, and put it in your mouth! Start saying what you want Jesus to bring to pass.

This same Jesus! Jesus Christ, the Anointed One, the same yesterday, today and forever, desires to move in your life—to remove the burdens and destroy the yokes the devil has used to oppress you. He would like to see "the free favors of God profusely abound" in your life (Luke 4:19, AMPC). He desires to bless you.

That was His ministry 2,000 years ago. It's still His ministry today. That's what He does every day, 24 hours a day.

Call on Him in faith and let Him do it for you. He is the same, wonderful Jesus! 🙏

Now, That's Good News!

Ever since the Fall of Man, the devil has been using people as pack mules. He has clamped his yoke around their necks and burdened them down with sin, sickness, failure, poverty and every other damnable thing hell could devise.

“And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.”

Isaiah 10:27

Everyone has felt the terrible weight of that yoke. We've all experienced the pain and frustration that comes from struggling free of one burden, just to have the devil yank us around and pile on even more.

For thousands of years, that yoke of bondage was the inescapable tragedy of man's existence. To natural eyes it looked as though there would never be a way out. But by the Spirit of God, the prophet Isaiah looked forward to a time and saw that a Redeemer was coming. One who would finally free us from the oppression of the devil.

To fully appreciate just how good that news is, you must realize that Isaiah doesn't say the yoke will be broken because of the anointing. Many people read the verse that way, but that's not what it says. It says the yoke will be destroyed.

When you look it up in the Hebrew, you'll find the word translated destroyed means “absolutely useless.” It's possible that a broken yoke could be repaired and put back. But Isaiah said this anointing would annihilate the devil's yoke so completely, there would no longer be any evidence that it was ever on your neck!

That means every time you allow the Anointing of God to destroy a yoke in your life, whether it's in the realm of your health, your finances, your relationships or your past, it is literally, utterly destroyed and cannot be repaired to be used again. The devil can't pick it up and hold you in bondage with it again. Whom the Son sets free, is free indeed!
